LawInfo is recognized nationwide as a leader within the legal community, providing public access to free legal resources and to pre-qualified, pre-screened attorneys.

“ After shopping around and talking with a variety of (so-called) heavy-hitters in the content delivery niche, we decided to go with MoveDigital. We needed to feel confident that the company we chose would allow us to deliver streaming video to our largest and most important client as promised and without interruption. MoveDigital gets an A+ for reliability.

As a relatively small company, we're very budget conscious. The fact that MoveDigital is extremely price competitive was another important factor in our decision.

The MoveDigital interface makes using their service a pleasure. It's quick and clean. Anyone can figure out how to use it in a few minutes. It's really that easy. It's a time saver and that in itself is a great value. ”
